Social Club PowWow

The Social PowWow will be one hour each month. This month it will be on December 17 at 11am. This will be one hour each month on the calendar for you, the members of the Social Club, to let everyone know what is on your mind. Also, it will be an opportunity to find out about the upcoming activities. And, yes, it will be a time for you to become involved in areas that interest you. Please check the calendar and the marquee for the date and time.

Aluminum Can Tabs

In honor of Ernie Kappotis, please continue to save your can tabs. There is a collection container on the desk in the Clubhouse. We will be sure to turn them in on behalf of Ernie and his family. The tabs are donated to the Shriners to be used for children at Shriners hospitals.

Bingo HELP WANTED:

We encourage everyone to bring a snack/treat periodically to Bingo Night to share with all. We're also looking for help calling Bingo, helping out beforehand with setup or afterwards with cleanup. Please contact Leslie Decator. No Bingo on December 30th in order to set up for the New Year's Eve dance.

Bonfire Photo Directory 2019

We will be doing a new Photo Directory for 2020. I will be available at the Clubhouse on each Saturday in December and January from 2-4 to take your picture. Also, on January 11th after the Annual Meeting of Bonfire Association and January 18th after the Annual Social Club Meeting. Please contact me if you need information. Donna Kelley

Bonfire Social Club Event Group on Facebook

Please add the Bonfire Social Club Event Group to your "Groups" list on Facebook and follow us for upcoming Social Club Events. This is where you'll find the latest events that we are planning for Bonfire. These events may be dinner out at a local restaurant, going somewhere to listen to a band or even going to the movies. This page is not our personal FB page, this page is for Bonfire residents. Our goal is to get residents out of their homes and enjoying the "retired life" while also offering them a ride if they need one. We also appreciate comments about events whether they are past, present or future. We encourage input from you so that we can plan a better winter season for all to enjoy.

Christmas Eve Luminaries

Join us on Christmas Eve as we light the way for Jesus and Santa ;-) to our homes. To make the luminaries, you take paper lunch bags, fill them with a small scoop of play sand and place a tea light inside. Place them approximately 4-5 feet apart along the roadway in front of your home. Light them at dusk and enjoy the beautiful sentiment and glow that it provides for the night (usually lasts 4 hrs.). The Social Club will be selling premade luminaries that day (December 24th) from 2-3PM in front of the pool for 25 cents a bag. If you need luminaries, stop by and pick some up.

Flea Market

Next year's Indoor Flea Market is Saturday, February 1, 2020 and the sign-up sheet is posted on the wall in the clubhouse. When you sign-up, please check if you want one or two tables. The following is our guidelines for this event. If you have any questions you can call me at my number in the Bonfire phone book.

TO: Bonfire Social Club
FROM: Ramona Richardson
DATE: January 22, 2018
SUBJECT: Indoor Flea Market Guidelines (Updated)

My duties as 2nd Vice President of the Bonfire Social Club include overseeing the Indoor Flea Market. I am setting up the following guidelines:

1. Indoor Flea Market is the 1st Saturday in February.
2. Sign-up sheets will be available after the close of the flea market each year and will be available until approximately January 15 of the next year. Closing date will be announced in the January Tidbits of that year.
3. Soon after the closing date, a lottery will be drawn for one table each until all tables are filled. Tables will be $5.00 each. This will be done by the person in charge of the Flea Market with one assistant.
4. Weather permitting there will be one or two tents set up in the area outside the back door. These tables will be assigned after the tables inside are all assigned.
5. If there are tables left, the names of anyone who requested a second table will be put in a second pot and a lottery will be drawn until any remaining tables are filled.
6. No payment will be accepted until after the lottery is done.
7. Tables will be setup at 4:00 PM the day before and table numbers will be assigned at that time.

I hope this simplifies things for everyone. I know in the past some people would like to have a table and have been unable to get one.

Food Assistance

Could you benefit from a monthly food delivery? The membership of North Lake Chapel Church of Christ in Lisbon has an outreach ministry. They coordinate with the Leesburg Food Bank to make deliveries to area residents who have the need but cannot travel to the food bank. If this is you or one of your neighbors, please contact Mr. Pat Rogers, 352-223-9223.

Friday Coffee Break

Date: Every Friday from 8-9am

Place: Clubhouse

Contact Person: Karen Van Matre

Cost: $1 per donut

Details: Join us for donuts and coffee and a chance to catch up with friends every Friday. Everyone is welcome.

Volunteers Needed: We're always looking for someone to help out, if you'd be interested please let them know at Friday's Coffee Break. If you don't know how to make the coffee we can teach you :) Donuts are picked up from Publix that morning.

Potluck Hints: If you buy a ticket - tableware is supplied. Monday PM Meals - tableware is supplied. Remember that for potlucks/dinners, servings are a tasting size not a huge serving size per side. We are serving many residents at these events and ask that you bring a dish to share that serves at least 12. Be sure and bring your own tableware to these events.

Welcome to the "New Kids on the Block"

With so many new residents in Bonfire, we have decided to start a new section - A Welcome to the New Kids On the Block, where we will welcome new residents monthly. Due to the large amount of home sales this year we are only going back a few months when listing new residents in this newsletter. When you see them outside please take a moment to give them a big Bonfire Welcome. You will be able to meet all of them at the New Residents Welcome in January.

Get Well Cards:

Get well cards were sent to: Ellie Porwitzky, Donna Searles, David Niles, Bob Bergstrom

Sympathy Cards:

No Sympathy Cards were sent.

Special Note from Brenda Mayfield: I also want to thank everyone in the park who called me, sent cards or stopped in to let me know how much they miss my Bear. It has been real hard on me since he died, but I am doing my best to keep walking and to stay busy. He was 11 years old but I would still love to have him around the house with me. Thank you all for thinking of me.

I hope I did not miss anyone. Remember to let me know if anyone needs a card. Please call me at the phone number listed in the Bonfire Directory and leave a message if I am out. I am thankful for the people who do let me know.

Health Committee Report

Managing Your Mental Health through the Holidays

The holiday season often brings unwelcome guests — stress and depression. And it's no wonder. The holidays present a dizzying array of demands — parties, shopping, baking, cleaning and entertaining, to name just a few. But with some practical tips, you can minimize the stress that accompanies the holidays. You may even end up enjoying the holidays more than you thought you would.

When stress is at its peak, it's hard to stop and regroup. Try to prevent stress and depression in the first place, especially if the holidays have taken an emotional toll on you in the past.

1. Acknowledge your feelings. If someone close to you has recently died or you can't be with loved ones, realize that it's normal to feel sadness and grief. It's OK to take time to cry or express your feelings. You can't force yourself to be happy just because it's the holiday season.
2. Reach out. If you feel lonely or isolated, seek out community, religious or other social events. They can offer support and companionship. Volunteering your time to help others also is a good way to lift your spirits and broaden your friendships.
3. Be realistic. The holidays don't have to be perfect or just like last year. As families change and grow, traditions and rituals often change as well. Choose a few to hold on to, and be open to creating new ones. For example, if your adult children can't come to your house, find new ways to celebrate together, such as sharing pictures, emails or videos.
4. Set aside differences. Try to accept family members and friends as they are, even if they don't live up to all of your expectations. Set aside grievances until a more appropriate time for discussion. And be understanding if others get upset or distressed when something goes awry. Chances are they're feeling the effects of holiday stress and depression, too.
5. Stick to a budget. Before you go gift and food shopping, decide how much money you can afford to spend. Then stick to your budget. Don't try to buy happiness with an avalanche of gifts.
6. Plan ahead. Set aside specific days for shopping, baking, visiting friends and other activities. Plan your menus and then make your shopping list. That'll help prevent last-minute scrambling to buy forgotten ingredients. And make sure to line up help for party prep and cleanup.
7. Learn to say no. Saying yes when you should say no can leave you feeling resentful and overwhelmed. Friends and colleagues will understand if you can't participate in every project or activity.
8. Don't abandon healthy habits. Don't let the holidays become a free-for-all. Overindulgence only adds to your stress and guilt.
9. Take a breather. Make some time for yourself. Spending just 15 minutes alone, without distractions, may refresh you enough to handle everything you need to do. Find something that reduces stress by clearing your mind, slowing your breathing and restoring inner calm.
10. Seek professional help if you need it. Despite your best efforts, you may find yourself feeling persistently sad or anxious, plagued by physical complaints, unable to sleep, irritable and hopeless, and unable to face routine chores. If these feelings last for a while, talk to your doctor or a mental health professional.

Don't let the holidays become something you dread. Instead, take steps to prevent the stress and depression that can descend during the holidays. Learn to recognize your holiday triggers, such as financial pressures or personal demands, so you can combat them before they lead to a meltdown. With a little planning and some positive thinking, you can find peace and joy during the holidays.
